

 Small —100 ml
  Medium —150 ml
  Carafe —500 ml
  Bottle —750 ml

We want you to be able to enjoy great wines at a serving size that suits you best. We have introduced small pours, for maximum choice. All our wines listed below are produced in harmony with nature, including bio-dynamic, natural, organic & sustainable wines.

White Wine

Domaine Grauzan Sauvignon Blanc 2018 Our most popular white from one of the best co-ops in France— Sustainable	5	8	21	26
Simon Joseph Chardonnay 2018 A “négociant” wine selected & blended by Irish winemaker Simon Tyrrell. Supple and rounded from the cooler eastern Languedoc— Sustainable	5	8	21	26
Domaine de Cabrol Picpoul de Pinet 2018 A fruity, tangy twist from the sandy salt marshes in France’s southern Languedoc— Sustainable	5.5	9	24	29
Waltner Gruner Veltliner “Steinberz” 2018 Young up & coming winemaker doing great things with the very popular and versatile Austrian variety “Gee-Vee”— Sustainable	5.5	9	24	29
Abel Mendoza Jarrarte Rioja Blanco 2018 Abel farms 48 tiny parcels organically, high in the hills above Rioja. This is an unoaked blend of 5 varieties, & an outstanding Spanish white— Organic	5.5	9	24	29
Pradio Sauvignon Blanc 2018 Ripe and rounded, from Italy’s “Best Winemaker” Gianni Menotti via Gambero Rosso— Sustainable	5.5	9	24	29
Roka Laski 2017 Irish winemakers, Sinead & Liam Cabot’s critically acclaimed artisan project in Slovenia. Laski is rich & round with a hint of spice on the finish— Natural	5.5	9	25	31
Domaine d’Ardhuy Bourgogne Blanc Haut Cotes de Beaune 2017 One of Burgundy’s leading organic pioneers, this is classic white Burgundy at a great price— Organic	9	12	33	40

Orange Wine

Aux Innocents les Mains Pleines 2017 Chardonnay with skin contact, stone fruit & pith. Go on a voyage of adventure & discovery— Natural	5.5	9	25	31

Rosé Wine

Les Vignes d’Oc Rosé 2018 Co-ops can do Rosé really well as they have plenty of choice for source fruit, and this is a great example. Crisp and refreshing— Sustainable	5	8	21	26

Red Wine

Les Vignes d’Oc Grenache Merlot 2018 Another award-winning co-op wine from France’s Languedoc delivering amazing quality at a great price. Elegant, silky and fruity— Sustainable	5	8	21	26
Les Terres Cortal Cabernet Sauvignon 2018 Think “New World” Cabernet, but from France – plump blackcurrants in a glass— Sustainable	5	8	21	26
Campotino Montepulciano d’Abruzzo 2018 Italy’s Abruzzo region is possibly the country’s best for easily drinking, food friendly & with that classic Italian savoury touch— Sustainable	5.5	9	24	29
La Petite Bellane Côtes du Rhône 2016 Stephane Vedeau makes this elegant, almost Burgundian style of Rhône up in the cooler climes of Valreas— Organic	5.5	9	24	30
Bernard Baudry Chinon Les Granges 2017 The Loire is home to a panoply of natural wine makers of all styles. Matthew Baudry creates wonderfully elegant, medium bodied reds from Cabernet France— Natural	5.5	9	24	29
Domaine du Bon Augure les Petites Aportes Pinot Noir 2018 Cedric Guy’s vineyards are so high up in the hills in the Northern Languedoc that the wines are more Burgundian than Southern France. Very delicate, pure, ethereal Pinot— Natural	6	10	26	33
COS Cerasuolo di Vittoria 2015 One of the very original biodynamic estates, this is a blend of Nero d’Avola & Frappato from Vittoria in southern Sicily— Biodynamic	9	12	35	43

Dessert Wine

Miro Fuga Mundi 2007— Natural Fuga Mundi means “Flee the World” in Slovenian. What more do you need from a dessert wine?!	9	45

Sparkling

La Riva dei Frati Prosecco di Valdobbiadene Classic bubbles from the region’s top classification, DOCG— Sustainable	9	38

Champagne

Pierre Moncuit Cuvée Blancs De Blancs	16	75
Louis Roederer Brut Rosé 2008		115
Louis Roederer Brut Vintage 2008		130